Roderick Miller of this city has brought through his attorneys. Forrey and Geiss-ler, an action against Earl C. Rogers landiord of the Putnam inn, claiming $2,000 damages. Property of the defend-ant to the amount of $2,200 has been at-tached. The action arose out of the sale of an automobile which turned out to be a stolen car and was replevmen by tac insurance company that paid the liability insurance on it. Before the replevin acion, however, the car had passed through everal other hands into the possession of Napoleon Mouir, against whom the action of replevin was successfully maintained. The writ alleges that on or about the 28th day of May, 1918, defendant sold and defivered to plaintiff a Buick auto-mobile for a consideration of $450 in cash, and an automobile worth $1,450 and at the same time represented to plaintiff that he, the defendant, had good title and right to sell the car. Afterwards plaintiff sold and delivered the automobile to Arthur Panin.

ORPHEUM THEATER, DANIELSON. The Fox photoplay, Over the Hill, which was made from Will Carleton's cel-obrated Parm Ballads, and has enjoyed such a marvelous success wherever presented—backed by an initial run of a full year on Broadway—will be seen at the Orpheum theatre April 24, 25 and 26. William Fox, the noted picture producer, regards Over the Hill as his fa-vorite over all the pictures he over pro-duced. At the time when it was ready for its initial screening, and before its sensational Broadway success had start-ed, Mr. Fox issued the following inter-esting statement:

"I have watched the development of Over the Hill from the moment the first scene was written. I have watched throughout the months it has been in the course of production. It represents labor of love. In it I take a pride which has never been exceeded—or ever equal-led—in all the years Fox Film Corporation has been issuing pictures,
